In 1883, a young Irishman fresh from the old sod, named Alexander Nesbitt landed in Graham county. He was penniless and secured work as a common laborer on a farm. He is now one of the most well-to-do farmers in that county. He is owner of 640 acres of the best land in the county, well improved as can be found, with a residence of $3,000 at lowest cost, barn and other buildings of the best, 75 head of fine native cattle, 10 head of fine horses, 2,000 bushels of wheat in bin yet remaining of this year's crop, and all other farm necessities in proportion. Mr. Nesbitt and family have just started for Ireland to visit the scenes of his childhood. The story of this young Irishman has a parallel in every county in the state of Kansas.—Capital. [Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Nesbitt and niece, Miss Fleming, visited at Grandma Nesbitt's in this city last Saturday and left on the evening train for Ireland.]

Dark Hair

Mr. and Mrs. Powers of Moberly, Mo., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sellers the first of the week.

Last Friday evening Mrs. W. C. Olson and Mrs. W. S. Harrison entertained about seventy-five ladies at 6 o'clock tea at the pleasant home of the former. Dainty refreshments were served and the evening was passed very pleasantly in social chat between friends who met in the congenial atmosphere of that pleasant gathering. All departed feeling that it was an evening delightfully spent.

Last Saturday evening Mr. Marion Goble and Miss Jennie Corwin, of Russell, were married by Probate Judge Howe. Both of these young people are well and favorably known in our community and we wish them a long and happy life. They left on the night train for Russell and returned Thursday morning. As soon as B. Seller's new house in the northeast part of town is completed it will be occupied by this happy couple.

Last Monday morning the town was startled to hear that Ham Richardson had died by his own hand. He used a revolver, the shot taking effect near the heart. We did not learn the details but it was a shocking thing to happen in our unusually quiet and well regulated little town. Justice Groft acted as coroner and empaneled a jury and the jury brought in a verdict that he came to his death by his own hand. We might add much more, but to do so at this particular time forbids us doing so. The remains were interred in the Wa-Keeney cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

News came from Rock Island, Ill., last Saturday evening that Mrs. Walker or Grandma Walker as she was generally known had died at the home of her daughter Maggie last Friday evening after several weeks of failing health. Mrs. Walker is too well known in our community to need an introduction and she had a very wide circle of warm friends who feel sorry to learn of her departure. She was a beautiful Christian character and lived the life of one. She leaves all grown sons and daughters most of whom were able to attend the funeral. THE WORLD and many friends extend sympathy to the bereaved ones at this sad hour.

MRS. CECILIA STOWE,
Orator, Extra Nour Club.

176 Warren Avenue,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 22, 1902.
For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as I well as I, for home with a sick woman is a disconsolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being.

Cecilia Stowe
Mrs. Stowe's letter shows every woman how a home is saddened by female weakness and how completely Wine of Cardui cures that sickness and brings health and happiness again. Do not go on suffering. Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui.
